“One of Pardee Homes’ greatest competitive strengths is our ability to swiftly and decisively respond to market changes and to the buyers’ needs. We have a long history of effectively navigating ups and downs—and emerging a stronger, more creative company with every market cycle.” ~Mike McGee

“Over the years, Pardee Homes has acquired unrivaled land holdings in all the regions where we do business. Equally important, we have demonstrated that we know how to put that raw land to use, converting it into thriving communities where people want to live.” ~Jon Lash

Pardee Homes' President and CEO Mike McGee has a big picture vision for the company. He also has a proven ability to execute—and to make the tough calls when they need to be made. McGee's business savvy is grounded in decades of industry experience and is supported by a comprehensive education in business administration, advanced management, real estate development and law.

McGee's leadership style is solutions-driven and encourages innovation and initiative. Under his leadership, Pardee Homes has been repeatedly recognized for its workplace, product and commitment to charitable activities. In honor of his contributions to the industry, McGee was inducted into the California Building Industry Foundation's 2007 Hall of Fame.

With his operational experience, Executive Vice President and COO Jon Lash is a strong complement to McGee's leadership. Lash oversees the daily operations of the organization and leads a tenured team of senior managers who bring across-the-board experience.

In recent years, Lash has crafted most of Pardee Homes' land deals. He continues to place special focus on land acquisition, as well as community development and homebuilding operations. With Pardee Homes since 1987, Lash brings a tactical and financial bent to the leadership team.
