

NOVA RIDGE

RESIDENCE 2A

Floor plans are not to scale. While every effort will be made to comply with desired locations, diagram measurements cannot be guaranteed due to existing framing conditions and/or code requirements. Although various systems and other construction details may appear on this floor plan, Pardee Homes has prepared this diagram solely to illustrate the electrical options as proposed. Construction factors or local building authorities may cause Pardee Homes to alter the electrical options from this depicted proposal. Further, this floor plan should not be relied upon as illustrating any other included features, options or construction details which may be either presently intended or ultimately constructed. Please visit our Sales Office or Design Studio for current information regarding all included features, option and other construction details.
